United States Arms .- The Spring. field armory has now capacity to turn out 400,000 stands of arms yearly. Besides the 1,500,000 rifles and muskets now in the hands of United States soldiers, the Government has stored away ready for use and distribution, when needed, 750,000 new rifles and muskets. When this war began, the Government was almost des-titute of arms. We have now, including those taken from the rebels, more cannon and small arms than any two nations in Europe.

A FINE COUNTRY .- On the river Amazon are to be found spiders. with bodies two inches, and legs. seven inches long, that catch and suck birds; butterflies that are mistaken for humming birds; green snakes just like a creeping plant, and a lovely coral snake with bands of black and vermillion separated by clear white rings; monkeys with white hair all over them; monkeys only seven inches long; and owl-faced apes, sleeping all day and lively all night.

THE following advertisement appears in the Jamestown Journal: "Wanted .- A boy to learn the printer's trade. A boy that knows a hoe from a bull's foot, and is willing to work without owning an interest in the office, and does not require too much waiting on, can have a chance in the Journal office. He will not be expected to take the whole charge of the business at first."

"My son," said a fond parent to his offspring, after having surveyed the wonders of the London Crystal Palace. "My son, if you can tell me which of all these works of men pleased you the most, I will give you half a crown." "The veal and ham pies, responded the young hopeful; "give me the money."

JAMES REDPATH, a North Carolina abolitionist, is soon to become editor of the Charleston Mercury -one of the the changes brought about by the rebellion. We shall probably next hear of Jeff. Davis urning Methodist preacher, and R. Barnwell Rhett a pedler of wooden nutmegs. "A penny for poor old Relisarins."

Ho! FOR ARIZONA -The Flag says General Mason, Commander of the Department of Arizona, left that city on Tuesday last, accompanied by his staff, for the field of his future action. He is an early and warm suporter of the Monroe Doctrine, and hence, probably, was chosen for that Department.

THERE is a pony in Cork which a paper there claims to be the smallest in the world. It comes from Iceland, is four years old, stands two feet two inches high, and weighsonly about eight stone.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY. 9, 1865

That Sermon.

Sunday, May 7th, 1865, must have been an eventful day in the experience of the Dead Sea Telegraph. We were informed some days since, that the assembled wisdom of the establishment was laboring with the mortal throes of a great effort, but, from what has previously issued from the same source, we cannot confess to having entertained very extravagant anticipations of the result. We were deceived and basten to atone for our error in acknowledging perfect astonishment at the bemily we see before us. It's good, somewhat lengthy to be sure, but for an essay on morality it will repay perusal. Strike out all that about having · left a vicious and rotten society for the purpose, etc.," and the production per se meets our entire approval. We know, indeed, little about the kind of society, which the writer, speaking for the entire community, says they have left, but judging from their way of "establishing true principles of purity and virtue among these mountain tops." we guess it must bave been "rotten" enough.

We repeat our astonishment that such sentiments as these, should be entertained by any person in connection, or sympathy with polygamy. It was not our belief that such good 'could "come out of Nazareth" and it is only to be accounted for on the supposition that some dim recollection of early teachings, have been painfully recalled from the distant past and written down as one might repeat a verse, or recitation learned in school-boy days. It is not impossible that the writer may have succeeded in digging down through the debris of error. that years of persistant folly have accumulated in his mind and so discovered the living principles of truth buried long ago.

It is sufficiently indefinite to admit of such a supposition, certainly. Its application here, as pertinent to any surrounding circumstances, is not perceived Perhaps however, its great beauty is intended to consist in its universal application. If so, it is an eminent success. for it wisely omits any home allusions and ascends into those serene altitudes where all men essays, that have no earthly significance to anchor them, float forever in an atmosphere, etheriel as themselves.

But while, in itself, few objections can be found to this immortal production--immortal because the same sentiments have been reproduced since. Lord knows when, and never found a dissenter-we do seriously object to the source whence it emanates. That these soi dis ant Saints are the immaculate beings they claim to be is not admitted. For men, who glory in the shame of bringing the sanctity of marriage into disrespect; who trample upon the most sacred affection of the female heart, with on a worm, making the condition of woman one of lifelong misery and degradation ; who outrage every sense of deeency by bringing into their homes, into the bosoms of their tamilies, into the presence of their sons and daughters. strange women to fill the place of honor there, that belongs only to a mother and a wife; who, without remorse see the canker' worm of care feed upon the cheek and the slow torture of neglect. wringing the heart-strings of her to whom lealty was sworn while life should last, is it not impudent hypocracy in absolute perfection, that such wretches should undertake to read us homilies on virtue and morality?

Thousands of broken female bearts cry ceaselessly to Heaven against their iniquity, and sooner or later, in one way or another. Justice will have to be ap peased. Meanwhile, we respectfully re quest a cessation of hostilities between Satan and Sin.

ASSASSINATION OF CAPTA'N SOULE A most borrid and dasturdly assassination has been committed in Denver City. Col. Capt. Soule, an officer in the that the women were actually so pro-U. S. Service, has been cowardly murdered, by an assassin; supposed to be a soldier, named Squires. We blush to be made believe, that there is a man, wearing the uniform of a U. S. Soldier. who could in cold blood commit such an act.

We insert the following from the Den-

DENVER, Monday, 2 P. M. - Scouts have been sent out all over the country after Squirs, of the 2nd Colorado Cavalry who killed Capt. Soule, also, every house in town is being searched. Capt Soule, was killed instantly, at half past en last night, near the Presbyterian Church, by one Squires, who lay in wait. The cause is said to be an old grudge for putting Squires in the guard house. apt. Soule's Funeral will take place on Wednesday the 26th. Squires got shot in the hand, which bled profusely to camp on Curtis Street, He acknowledged killing a man down town, and with his accomplice, one Morrow, of the 2nd ran off to the South part of the town site. Much excitement and great indignation is felt by citizens and military comman ders, who will treat him summarily as soon as captured. Squires and accomplice were in wait for General Henry also, to shoot him if seen last night; re action has taken place in decipline, and all soldiers will be held with tightened reins bereafter

BY PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

SPECIAL TO THE DAILY VEDETTE.]

New York, May 6th

The Herald's Richmond dispatch shows a terrible state of impoverishment, which the people of Virginia have been reduced by the rule of rebel military. Thousands of the inhabitants of Richmond. Petersburg, and the surrounding country, are preserved from starvation by the supplies of food which the United States Commissaries have furnished them Strong desires are expressed for the removal by the Government of all restrictions on trade, not contraband of war. so that facilities may be afforded for the resuscitation of industry. Both in the towns and rural districts, at present, the farmers are generally without imple ments and seeds necessary to do the planting, and unless these can be speedily procured, there will be no crops in the State this season.

It is understood that the army of the James, commanded by Gen. Ord, con sisting of the 24th and 25th corps, will remain in Virginia for the present. I' is said the 25th corps. consisting of colored troops. will go into camp at City Point. A portion of the army of the Potomac was expected to pass through Richmond on Thursday, or yesterday, on the way to Washington.

The principal eitizens and local offic ers at Richmond are rapidly coming for ward to the Provost Marshal's office and taking the oath of allegiance Among others who have subscribed to it, is Ma yor Mayo, Judge Lyon, Littleton and Tazwell, prosecuting Attorney.

New York. May 5t The Richmond Whig of the 4th says. that Robert Ould. late confederate Com missioner of exchange; W. H Hatch his assistant, and several other attaches of the Bureau have been arrested, on orders from Washington, upon charges in connection with the administration of affairs, devolving upon them.

Gen. Meade has arrived at Richmond. The army of the Potomac, reached Manchester, on the night of the 3d, from the City, en route to Washington. The heavy equipments and paraphernalia, go lound by water.

New York: May, 6th. Charleston dispatches of the lst. say that General Porter's force has returned from the expedition into the interior of South Carolina, having destroyed an im mense amount of rebel property.

Guerrillas have again become troublesome in the southern part of the state. gress to become a law. It secures per- soult on Selma, the second division points opposite Washington.

The secessimists in Charleston were wild with joy. on learning of the assasina tion of President Lincoln, and it is said fanely sacriligous, as to fall on their faces and express thanks to God. for the enormous crime. The sudden arrest of ex-Governor Aiken appeared to bring Government mails, troops, armaments, them to their senses; they immediately became more discreet. In the conduct of Mr. Aiken's arrest and the expulsion of the Contumacus Epi-copal Clergyman. in return for which they are to pay no Mr. Marshall, who refused to substitute prayer for the President of the U.S. for that which he had been offering for Jeff. Davis, caused much excitement amongst | lege to construct a canal across the Isththe Charlestonians. They insist that Governor Aiken has never been anything but a Union man.

New Orleans, April 29th. Two hundred and sixty seven Rebel officers, ranking from Colonels to Lieutenants, captured at Mobile, arrived here to day. The country on the east side of the river, from Tunicia Landing to Bayou Sara, is completly inundated for 35 miles; causing great suffering and many of the inhabitants are starving. Morganza was abandoned in consequence of the flood and the Levee is giving away daily. Fears are entertained of a more destructive overflow than has ever betore occurred.

The Mobile News of the 27th learns that the rebel rams Nashville and Morgan, and five rebel steamers are at Demopolis. There are no troops, except Maberry's guerrillas, betweem Mobile and Demopolis. The demoralization in the rebel army and navy in that region is very great.

New York, May 6th. The Erie railroad car manufactory at Jersey City, was destroyed by fire this morning; loss, $135.000, supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

The gunboat Florida, arrived to-day from New Orleans, bringing the pirate Reed and other officers, of the ram Webb

Montreal, May 6th. Beverly Tucker and Geo. N. Saunders have suddenly disappeared. It is reported that they have gone in the direction of Halifax.

New York. May 6th.

The Commercial's special says: The Mexican Legation is circulating printed pamphlets containing terms of emigration and land bounties, given to those who go there.

The Tribune's special says: All attempts to disparage the weight of testi mony in possession of the Government implicating the leading spirits of the rebeltion in the assassination plot, will prove futile. When Secretary Staunton. several days since, announced the plot to have been discovered to stretch from Richmond to Canada, he spoke from record. Judge Holt has since received a great mass of evidence, and knows it to be of crushing weight.

All but four of the forts about Wasl. ington are to be immediately dismantled and their garrisons withdrawn and th s expensive branch of defensive warfare is to be put upon a general retrenchment path

Governor Pierpont is arranging the preliminaries prior to going to Rich mond, to assume control of the State. He has been assured by President Johnson that he has recognized him as the egal Governor of Virginia, and will sustain him.

New York, 5th.

The steamer Costa Rica, from Aspinwall, brings $600,000 in gold, from San Francisco.

The brig Silver Cloud, from the Cape of Good Hope, brings the crew of the hip Edward, of New Bedford, captured by the Shenandoah.

The Panama Railroad Company se-petual ownership of the road, and no other road is to be built within 150,000 metres on either side. The company pays half a million of dollars, and insures to the Government eighteen thousand shares, at one hundred dollars each. The company is to transport etc., gratis; charge ten per cent less for the transportation of the produce of the Republic than those of other countries; taxes for necessary lands, etc., which are conceded to the French. There are prospects of a rupture between Chili and Spain, growing out of claims by the latter, for the treatment of her fleet on the way to Peru.

The reported capitulation of Montevideo to the Brazilian forces is confirmed. Flores has assumed supreme power in Uruguay, under the protectorate of Brazil, thus terminating the war.

The new revolution in Bolivia is headed by Gen. Bilzia, who is proclaimed President. Milgarze and Immy marched on Laproz, and, after a desperate struggle, took possession of the town. Belzia was shot. Peace is restored along the whole southern portion of Peru. In the state revolution amongst the government there is but little hope that the President will be able to maintain his position.

The U.S. gunboat Wateree left Aspinwall on the 18th. The U.S. steamer State of Georgia, arrived on the 16th.

New York, May 6th.

A Savannah letter of the 29th says: Gen Wilson's expedition arrived yesterday from Macon. The following is a condensed history of the trip. He left Chickasawala on the 22d of March; the first engagment with Forrest was at a place called Ebenezer Church, near Planters i le, Ala. He fought and routed him, and his forces were driven West of Catawoa, and captured 300 prisoners Three guns were captured; a column was then sent out, which captured and destroyed a large amount of Confederate property. Selma, 240 miles from the Base, was captured on April 2d with 12 guns in position, 25 arsenals, 3 rolling Mills with fixtures, a very large naval foundry and arsenal second in importance in the Confederacy, with powder works and magazines and a large number of cars were destroyed. He remained in Selma 8 days, bridged the Alabafor 850 feet, the operation occupying 5

Montgemery 50 miles distant, was the next place attacked; but, it surrendered without assault. We destroyed two rolling mills and foundry's, 2 magazines and 63 cars; nitre works and 5 steamboats all on the Alabama and Tennesse rivers. The rebels burned 85.000 bales of cotton before the evacuation.

Columbus, Ga, 85 miles distant, was aken by assault, after dark on the 16th We here captured 1.200 prisoners, 53 guns, 100,000 bales of cotton, immense quantities of ordnance, Commissary and Quarter masters stores, and destroyed 7 large cotton factories, arsenals, accoutrements, and pistol factory, naval foundry, 13 locomotives, 100 cars, depot and machine shops, 1 gunboat, mounting 6

Detour to West Point, which was carried by storm and a garrison of 350 men and 4 guns captured. The rebel Gen. Tyler was killed. We destroyed 15 locomotives, 20 cars, 2 bridges and 2 large factories · also a large quantity of Quarter-masters stores at Griffin; and all the bridges on the Selms and Montgomery road. Macon was taken without opposition; here Gen'ls Howall cured a new contract with Columbia, Cobb. Gustavne Smith. Robeson Mercer which only needs the sanction of Con and McCall were captured. In the as-charged over the works in splendid style carrying everything before them; the enemy's forces were from 6 to 7 thousand strong, mostly militia. Our assaulting force was only 1,250; our loss 250. the enemy officially state their loss to be between 4 and 500. Our whole loss in all the expedition was only 350. A total of 480 miles was marched in 20

New York, May 4th.

The Commercial's special says: Jeff Davis and several leading rebels will be included in the bill of indictment before the court for trial of the murderers now in custody, and to be captured.

The Post's special says : Marylanders charged with harboring Booth and alding his escape, have been arrested and lodged in prison.

The charges against Governor Aiken were preferred by the military authorities in Charleston.

Washington, May 4th.

By order of the Secretary of War the War Department and all its Bureaus were closed at 12 o'clock, and will continue so throughout the remainder of the day, in respect to the memory of President Lincoln. Minute guns will be fi ed every half hour at the arsenal, closing at sundown with the national

New York, May 5th.

The Tribune's special says: Governor Aiken was closeted yesterday morning with President Johnson, and bad a long interview with Stanton. He has the freedom of the city, and enjoys the society of the members of his family who came with him. It is understood that he is in aid of the Government, rather than to receive any punishment.

New York. May 5th:

The Herald's special says: It is understood that there has been a formal demand made on the Canadian government for the surrender of such assassins and conspirators as may be within its jurisdiction.

The Washington Republican says: Statements detailing the mysterious manner of finally disposing of Booth's body are untrue, and says, Col. Baker and brother are the only two persons living who know what disposition was made of it. They are under oath to reveal the place to no human being.

Beverly Tucker and W. C. Clary, for whom rewards were offered by President Johnson, bave published letters denying in positive terms any knowledge whatever of the conspiracy for the capturing or assassinating of the late President Lincoln.

Montreal, 5th.

Saunders and Tucker are out with mother manifesto, addressed to Andrew Johnson, in which they accuse him of the hellish plot to murder their christian President, and they agree to go to Rauses Point or some other place, to be tried on the charge made in the President's recent proclamation, if the United States Government will pay for their detence and guarantee them safety.

New York. 5th.

A Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Press says: Tle con 4sion of Harrold and the docum a ary evidence found on Booth's body, fastens beyond cavil the plot and its full sanction upon Jeff. Davis and his Canada commissioners.

Mexican recruiting agents advertise openly in to-day's Washington Chronicle, for discharged officers and men, to emigrate to Mexico.

WE observed some nice fresh, delicious oranges for sale in the city on Saturday last.

California luxuries are finding their way to this market. It's queer that delicacies imported from a Gentile port are permitted to enter Utah. Oh! we Gentiles and soldiers are borrible cusses; so Brigham declares.

THE weather in Utab. at present, is delightful, warm and pleasant, with "breezes" somewhat strong, and an oc casional cloud of dust, just sufficient to remind one that face and hands need washing and clothes brushed.

WHISKY selling in S. L. City is pronounced a nuisance by Brigham. How is it that conscience permits him to sell at his own bar in the Salt Lake House, just as much as anybody wants to pay for? Queer justice this, aint it?

JOEL STEENBOCK & Co. bave an extensive manufactury and salesrooms in New York and St. Louis. A large assortment of Gents Furnishing Goods. Drawers. Shirts, etc., on hand. See advertisement.

It is announced by telegraph that Head Quarters District of the Plains will be, until further orders, established at Julesburg instead of Denver.

Does anybody know where Briggs is? His friends are anxious to hear from him

INDIAN ITEM.—Contradictory to vague rumors afloat to-day respecting Indian figting down the road, we publish the following dispatch received at Gen. Connor's headquarters this afternoon, giving the following special and exact fact of the whole matter:

Fort Kearney, April 27. The following dispatch is just received: Alkali, April 25th.-To Lieut. F. A. McDonald, A. A. A. General: Sir - I have the homer to report that on the night of the 23d inst. the Indians ran off 170 head of cattle on the North Platte, belonging to a train owned by Mr. Ward, sutler at Fort Laramie. I followed them into the sand-hills thirty-miles, and captured the cattle and one pony. I ran them so close that they abandoned all their plunder, which I burned. Our horses were so jaded that we had to give up the pursuit farther, and returned at F. B. MURPHY, 12 m.

Capt. 7th Iowa Cav., Comd'g Post.

It is supposed these Indians were Little Thunder's Band. They numbered fifty, and fled north of his camp, which is said to be on Pine Creek, emptying into Niobrarah River.

(Signed) Col. LIVINGSTON, Commanding.

GEN. Connor has abolished the nuisance, called a Provost Guard. which has afflicted Denver for two or three years. A guard is mounted regularly, at the jail, to attend to purely military business, the officer of the day is supposed to wear his oniform and attend to business, and the guard to wear their side arms as per Regulations, The military companies have been transferred from West to East Denver where they have pitched camp on the high land above town. These new arrangements give general satisfaction.

WHIPPED AND DEMORALIZED BUT NOT SCATTERED .- A soldier of Bate's division, after the command had run two days from Nashville, had thrown away his gun and accou-trements, and alone in the woods, sat down and commenced think ing-the first chance he had for such a thing. Rolling up his bleeves and looking at his legs and general physique, he thus gave vent to his "pheelinks:" "I am whipped, badly whipped, and somewhat demoralized; but no man can say I am scattered."--Augusta, Ga Sentinel DEFEATED.—Clarence J. Prentice, son of the editor of the Louisville Journal, and an especially virulent rebel, lately undertook to capture Tazewell, Tennessee. He had one hundred and fifty men; the place was held by fifty men under Lieutenant Jennings. Prentice demanded surrender; Jennings declined; a fight ensued, and Prentice was whipped most decidedly. Instead of taking the place, the rebel leader was compermission to bury his dead.

Noble Complikent - "You have lost your right arm," said George III. to Lord Nelson at his first interview after the affair at Tene-

"But not my right hand," replied his Lordship, 'as I have the honor of presenting Captain Nesbet to your Majesty."

A HAPPY TURN .- "For what do you wink at me, sir?" said a beautiful young lady, angrily, to a stranger, at a party.

"I beg pardon, madam," replied the wit, "I winked as men do at the sun—your splendor dazzled my eyes."

A wife in Uhio lately gave birth to four children, and the astonished husband immeadiately deserted her and fled from the State. Nowthequestion is: Was the fault partially his'n or altogether hern?

"Close up, boys, close up!" said the Captain; "if the enemy should fire on you when you're straggling along that a-way, he couldn't hit a darned one of ye!

Some one remarked to Mrs. Siddons that applause was necessary to actors, as it gave them confidence. "More," replied the actress; "it gives breath."
